Definition of Done - Train Easy Resource

User Stories:

- All tasks for a user story are complete.

- User is able to perform functionality defined by the story with little to no possible bugs.

- Functionality is reviewed by all members at the end of the sprint.

- (UI related) Users can understand or recognize how to perform their task with ease.

Tasks:

- Code performs task/fixes the issue defined by task.

- External libraries have been documented for other team members' use.

- Code has been reviewed by at least one other member to ensure it works properly.

- UI has been accepted as satisfactory by one other member.

- Code has been pushed to the development branch.

- Task on Jira board has been marked as complete.